TRASHY LITERATURE.

Some Thoughts on what Most Persons Read, and the Pernicious Effects of Such Literature.

EDITOR GAZETTE: In its issue of June 29th, the Wasp gives an illustration in the style of Hagarth, demonstrating the pernicious influences upon the rising generation of the trash literature of the day; not the dime novels, but the more plausible vehicle of literary and family journals, issuing principally from New York and Boston, the "metropolis" of commerce and the "Hub" of refinement. Any one who has lived in the large manufacturing towns of the East, especially of New England, and has patronized the street railways leading to suburban factories, over which the thousands of young men and women, boys and girls pass night and morning to their daily toil, must have been struck with the eagerness with which they almost universally dive into the columns of the various illustrated trash with which every one is freighted—journals like the New York Ledger, Hearth and Home, The Chimney Corner, Saturday Night, Day's Doings, Police News and Police Gazette, or perhaps a well-thumbed novel of the Southworth breed, from some cheap circulating library. They are all busy on their four-mile route, and when the lunch basket comes out at noon the literary trash comes out with it, and instead of an hour's healthy exercise, and the walk morning and evening, their whole time, and mind, and body are all absorbed in the distorted ravings of Ned Buntline, or wild legends of border life, at which a frontiersman would laugh, or in some sickly tale of love and romance, as Lady Audley's Secret, which disturbs and poisons the mind, and spoils the appetite for anything wholesome. Sickly sentimentalities and romantic adventures, which form the staple of all this trash, excite the young imagination, sow seeds of discontent with their daily toil, sap the foundations of useful and happy lives, and lead, in not a few cases, to criminality and final ruin. The heart sickens at the baneful effect upon the young who see life only through such distorted media.

How many young lives have been ruined by this Bohemian of literature, God only knows! How many homes deserted let the tears of mothers tell! The State places a heavy tax upon rum, and a heavy license upon the rumrunner, and dangles a halter in the face of a murderer, but says not a word about those who not alone "kill the body, but kill the soul also," and the vulgar nabob who drives his fast teams, and entertains Presidents, and lives in luxury, has his trash in trade, spread out upon every book stall and at every railway station. It is thrust into your face in the train by great publishers in embryo (I believe at least two-thirds of the men who issue the periodical truck were newsboys) tainting the very air with its very presence.

This meretricious stuff is the sole mental pabulum of more than half the young of our land, and many of the old. Is it any wonder that we have "vagraney, hoodlumism, crime and sand lots?" (Dennis has certainly found an ideal on some news-stand) that so many of our young men and women are idle, and, rather than work, ready to do anything—steal, kill and suffer, like some model of yellow covers. I am not sure that, could we establish an index expurgatorius, it should not cover more than the vile weeklies. I am not quite sure that a very great deal of our juvenile literature is not a positive evil. It is so largely composed of the merest stuff that it displaces more solid reading and offers nothing to take its place. Great sticklers for juvenile works will prate of Miss Edgeworth and Hannah More, and the work they accomplished, but they will never tell you that in the days of those ladies there were not a thousand others trying to do the same thing, but in a bad way, and that the moral lessons of these two friends of the young were not choked out by the words of a "cloud" of poor imitators and vulgar publishers, who will print anything a hoodlum will sell or a young imagination feed on. It is not many years since I heard a Doctor of Divinity, whose name is a synonym of taste, learning and piety, in an address before a religious assemblage, descant largely upon the immense strides juvenile books had taken in a few years, and refer to the catalogues of the Sunday School Union, the Tract Society, and the publication societies of several denominations to illustrate the point, and the effect such an array of religious literature must have upon the rising generation for good, and I have often since asked myself the question, "Was he right?" I am afraid to answer as I want to, for I know some zealous cultivator of small honors, in the church's nursery, would drop on me; and yet I have no more idea that the religious novels of "Cousin Fanny," "Aunt Sarah Jane" and "Grace Sereleaf" are aids to religious training than I have that the bogus negro minstrelsy of the thousand and one singing books introduced into Sabbath school and church by bogus Yankee "professors" are aids in forming the musical tastes of our children, or developing a spirit of praise among the people.

But I have exceeded my space and yet not said half I wanted to say. The subject is too broad for a single communication. It is a subject for legitimate journalism, and to those "brief and abstract chroniclers of the times" I leave it.

THE PARDONING POWER.

President Hayes, it seems, has pardoned fewer criminals than did ex-President Grant during the same term of office. Perhaps if he had pardoned none no marked injustice would have been done. The pardoning power in the hands of the Executive places that branch of the government above the Judicial, when each branch should be coordinate; and further, impairs the strength of the Judiciary by an assumption of the weakness of the equity side of the law. It would be more in accordance with theory, should it appear that a criminal should be released before the term of his imprisonment expires, that this release be effected by the legislative branch of the government, or, if there be circumstances in connection with the ease or individual cases presented for pardon, which require the mature judgment of the Judiciary, a pardoning commission consisting of one or more members of the Congress or Legislature and one or more members of the Supreme Court should constitute the board of pardons. The abuses of the pardoning power are more or less unavoidable, but do not alone prove that this power should be exercised in great caution and only in a very limited number of cases. In the case of Holland, the Cincinnati ballot-box stuffer, the President granted him permission to remain in the county jail, instead of the State penitentiary, so that he might be convenient to give certain testimony considered of much importance. By some oversight this was construed into a pardon, and Holland is now electioneering in Ohio.

In our State Harrington, who was sent up from Pioche for fifteen years, was pardoned out after some fifteen months' confinement in the State prison, and as in nearly every other case of pardon, committed another crime and is now incarcerated for twenty years. The convict, as a rule, knows that a shrewd attorney works up his case before the pardoning board and that a due presentation for the State is seldom made. He perceives that his State has virtually insulted justice and stood uncovered in the presence of deceptive mercy. The resultant moral effect is evidenced in conjunction, of course, with his more or less otherwise depraved nature by the commission of some crime for which the State must inflict punishment after an expensive trial. The President exercises this questionable power with caution and in a limited number of cases, and thus betrays his good judgment and his respect for justice and the sentence of courts of law.

EASTERN WAR RAMBLINGS.

The session of the Berlin Congress will soon be terminated. Beaconsfield and Gortschakoff are on the most amicable terms, and the Anglo-Turkish treaty in relation to the English occupation of the Island of Cyprus does not disturb in the least the Russian Premier's mind. He said that he perceived no difference between England's occupation of Cyprus and her occupation of Malta. He would always be pleased with everything tending to strengthen England's road to India, because calculated to promote the prosperity of the whole world. This is the exhibition of a spirit quite different from that which has been shown by England. The latter nation bear very successfully the part of the dog in the manger. The Batoum question has been settled, and the dispute over Olti satisfactorily disposed of. It is stated that the Bulgarians and Cossacks, and even some of the regulars of the Russian army have committed most flagrant outrages south of the Rhodope mountains. These massacres, predatory incursions and burning of villages seem to have originated from a local fanatical strife. The Christians endeavored to expel the Musselmans. The probability is that since these reports were received by Fawcett, member of the English Parliament, that they are grossly exaggerated and designed more for political purposes than the statement of a distressing fact which calls for immediate and effective redress.

At Milwaukee the fifth annual convention of the Hebrews of the United States is in session. It has been agreed that the Hebrew congregations throughout the country shall be consolidated. Also that a farming colony be established for orphans who are old enough to leave the asylums.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The good deacon of the Carson Tribune heartily enjoys the job alleged to have been put up by Tom Norcross, and with his usual display of logic assumes that the citizens of this county endorse the job. About as logical, our dear old humbug, for us to say that the people of Carson should be held responsible for the murder by Clark of young Adams. We don't object to your vituperation against the citizens of this county, and would certainly endorse and join you in condemning any jobs put up on the Carson track, and especially by anyone hailing from this county. But a little more respect for your own readers' better taste, should lead you to condemn simply the guilty, recognizing this fact, that honesty is not confined to the arbitrary boundary lines of a particular county.

United States Attorney, Gen. Chas. L. Devens, gives it as his opinion that eight hours constitute a government mechanic's day's labor, and that those who labor ten hours shall be paid proportionately higher wages. He bases his opinion on section 3738, revised statutes of the United States, which declares that eight hours shall constitute a day's work for all laborers, workmen and mechanics who may be employed by the government.

To-morrow there may be much useless bloodshed at Montreal, Canada. The Orange societies have a foolish custom of celebrating the battle of Boyn on the 12th of July of each year. The Mayor of Montreal has forbidden the celebration this year, knowing that if this day was observed there would be a serious riot and a number of persons killed. He has 2000 troops with which to enforce order. Intense excitement prevails.

And now comes a German named O. Quitman and says that Weber, who has testified before the Potter committee, is a liar of the most unrestrained character. Potter seems out of luck in securing witnesses to blacken the character of the President and Sherman and Matthews. Potter may find that there is folly in attempting to injure good men's names.

Secretary Sherman writes a letter to Potter in which he takes strong exceptions to the manner in which the testimony relating to his case has been taken. He takes special exceptions to the method of questioning Weber. He says that he is ready to repel the charges against him, and has given Shellabarger a list of witnesses whom he desires summoned.

The Fitz-John-Porter case has been reopened at West Point. General Longstreet testified yesterday. General Porter's position seems a strange one, it appearing from the testimony thus far adduced that it would have been sheer folly on his part to have attacked the rebel Generals, Jackson and Longstreet, at Manassas Gap.

The citizens of Carson, under the leadership of Panties, Parkies and Hills will try to rob Reno of the State fair. If Washoe county sits still they will succeed. Nothing in the world they can take which they wouldn't carry off.

THE NEW YORK COMMUNISTS.

A New York dispatch of July 10th says:

At a meeting of Communists last evening, Alex. Jonas made an address in German, and his special points against Bismarck and in favor of a revolution in Germany were greeted with deafening shouts. The resolutions adopted call upon our brothers in Germany to use every effort in the coming election to send representatives of labor to the German Parliament, to boldly defy intimidation, to agitate for the overthrow of militarism, even though prison or exile be their only reward.

The language of Jonas is not communistic, but is simply significant of a wide-spread feeling throughout the the German empire. The military tyranny of Germany has grown intolerable, and must be greatly relieved by a reduction in the number of the standing army and the length of military service. Of course socialism is erratic, but it is, in a modified way, the expression of a demand to which the German government must accede.

The President yesterday appointed John L. Friabee, of Michigan, United States Consul at Rio Grande, Brazil.

The crop prospects in England are very encouraging.

Convention of Jews.

MILWAUKEE, July 9. — Delegates from the American Hebrew congregations of the principal cities of the United States meet in annual convention at Concordia hall to-morrow. About 150 delegates will be present, and as they are representatives of the religious and educated classes of the Jewish people of the country, it is expected that the gathering will be one of unusual importance. A special subject of the convention will be to harmonize and unite the various interests of the different sections of the country. The council will also discuss the feasibility of securing lands in the West and South that may be colonized by Jews who are not possessed of sufficient means to establish their own homes and business. The principal aim of the session will be to consolidate all the reformed congregations of the country to the important end that a number of colleges and auspices of the council may be established. Another object is to secure uniformity of service among the reformed congregations. The session will continue until Friday. During the convention there will also be held here the convention of the Rabbinical Literary Association, at which about forty Rabbis from various sections are expected to be present.

The Indian War.

Reports from Umatilla say the hostiles are dividing their forces. They are scouting for the purpose of gathering renegades to assist them in fighting. Troops are patrolling the Columbia river to prevent the hostiles from crossing it. The steamer Northwest is being used for this purpose near Umatilla. Governor Irwin, of California, has sent arms and ammunition to settlers in Surprise valley. General Howard has had a fight with the Indians at the head of Butter creek. He found the savages strongly entrenched, but succeeded in driving them from their position. Five enlisted men were wounded. The Indians moved their women and children and horses before the fight began, and it is thought in the direction of Grande Ronde.

Increase in Postoffice Business.

During the twelve months ending June 30, 1878, the issues of ordinary postage stamps by the postoffice department amounted to $19,468,618, as against $18,181,676 the preceding year. Issues of newspaper stamps increased from $1,000,605 to $1,033,845; the issue of stamped envelopes and wrappers from $4,516,932 to $4,905,774, and the issue of postal cards from $170,000,000 to $200,063,000. The total amount of increase in issues for sale to the public was $1,975,169, or 8 7/8 per cent as compared with last year.

Judge Lynch at Work.

A dispatch from Riverside, San Bernardino county, Cal., under date of July 10th, says: J. B. Kennedy, Justice of the Peace, and Constable Overton last Saturday captured in the San Jacinto mountains Refugio Baca, the supposed murderer of William Palmerton. Baca had a trial on Monday, but before any decision was given by Justice Kennedy, a party of armed men surrounded and took forcible possession of the prisoner and hung him.

The Carson River Wood Drive.

The main wood drive in the Carson river contains about 55,000 cords, and is this side of Markleeville. It is preceded by a drive of about 30,000 cords, part of which will be taken out at Empire and at the Morgan, Merrimac, Vivian, Santiago and Eureka mills. The bulk of the drive however, will come through to Dayton.

Jottings.

—The citizens of southeastern Oregon desire to be annexed to Nevada.

—Mr. John Hoy is receiving a lot of fine stock and market hogs from the East. See special advertisement for particulars.

—Social party is talked of. A pleasant soiree would relieve the dullness of the times. Let some gentleman who delights to "trip" etc., take the lead.

—Among the specials will be found an advertisement of Messrs. Osburn & Shoemaker. These gentlemen have some excellent sewing machines which they will sell at the most reasonable rates.

Personal.

General P. Edward Connor, of Eureka, passed through Reno this morning on his way to Virginia city. Our reporter interviewed him, when the following conversation ensued:

Q.—"General, how are political matters working out East?"
A.—"Well, the pot is beginning to boil."

Q.—"I see your name mentioned among the prominent Republican candidates for gubernatorial honors."
A.—"Yes; some of my friends desire to use my name. Although I do not seek the office, if tendered it I will not decline."

Q.—"Who do you think will be the Democratic candidate?"
A.—"Governor Bradley."

Q.—"Do you think Governor Bradley will be a hard man to beat?"
A.—"I certainly think so. The Republicans will have to nominate a very strong man, indeed, as their standard-bearer."

At this juncture the conversation turned upon mines, etc. The General reports the mines of Eureka district as looking better than ever, turning out large quantities of bullion, times improving and money plentiful.

DIFFICULT OPERATION.—Mr. E. E. Leek had a twenty-two-ounce tumor removed from his groin to-day. The operation was attended with much danger, but was skillfully performed by a Reno physician assisted by a surgeon from Virginia City. Mr. Leek will be all right in a few days.

CARSON MATTERS.

That Job—Jottings.

We were very much surprised last Tuesday when we learned of the Sunday racing over the Carson track, and of the action taken in regard to Mr. A. C. Bragg. We had personal knowledge of the fact that Bragg was not interested in the race and refused to take any share in the match, and although it was a matter of indifference to him about being ruled off the track, it became very important to refute the accusation of dishonor contained in the Trustees decision. A meeting of the Trustees was held in Carson last night, and the fact readily disclosed that no grounds, either of testimony or positive belief, had caused their action in regard to Mr. Bragg. They had no reason, nor did they assign any which was adequate in the case. Of course the action of a former meeting was reversed, and a definite statement made in writing that the Trustees desired to remove any imputation which they had cast upon Mr. Bragg's name. From what we learned the action was a hasty and ill-advised thrust at Reno on the part of Mr. Hill, one of the Trustees. According to common report and complaint in Carson, Mr. Hill is rather officious in the discharge of his duties, and his action was universally regretted. He had Cook pools and should never have taken part in a decision upon the race. However, the Trustees have fully rescinded their action, and although it is a questionable policy—this calling a man a thief and then taking it back—those papers which have industriously circulated the accusation should give Mr. Bragg a full and fair correction.

Everybody in Carson stoutly affirms that the race was a job, and they are unsparing in their condemnation.

Bill Hazel and Mollie H. are booked for a three mile and repeat race. They may run at Reno.

The good citizens of Carson say that they want a week's racing in September, but will not attempt a State fair. Can there be two State fairs? We shall see.

Deacon Parkinson is alive, and thinks a great deal of Carson.

Harry Mighels is slowly regaining his health.

Political mutterings fill the air.

Workingmen's Meeting.

Our account of the workingmen's meeting on Tuesday evening was crowded out yesterday, but we will tersely give the report to-day. Messrs. S. F. Hoole and R. Leeper were appointed as labor lecturers to organize Workingmen's unions in different parts of this county or in any part of the State, with a view of putting a State Workingmen's ticket in the field next fall. Mr. Johnson moved that a committee of three be appointed by the Chair to take the necessary steps to organize a military company, and report at the next meeting. The Chair then introduced Mrs. Young, of Grass Valley, who gave a very sensible lecture on the necessity of unity of action on the part of the laboring men, and that they should support American industry and not give patronage to the Chinese. Dr. Clark, of San Francisco, was next introduced, and he launched forth a shower of abuse at corporations, but especially gave the Chinaman, that "animal with the head and tail on the same end," the full benefit of his abuse. He was entirely familiar with the Chinese, having thoroughly mastered thirteen different dialects in that language and claimed that he is a pioneer on this coast, having resided here for 54 years. The meeting adjourned to meet Saturday night week.

CLOSED OUT.—This morning United States Marshal McLain took possession of the clothing store of Messrs. Cohn & Isaacs, in Reno, and United States Marshal Gus Ash took charge of the Virginia City store of the same firm. We regret that this popular firm are compelled to close down, for they have added not a little to the prosperity of this town. They reduced the price of all kinds of clothing to reasonable rates, but business proved too dull, and they had to succumb to the demands of their San Francisco creditors.

HOGS FOR SALE.—Any one wishing to purchase fine stock hogs or fat hogs for market can get the same by applying to Mr. John Hoy, Virginia street, Reno. 7-11-1f.

SEWING MACHINES—DOWN, AWAY DOWN!—Osburn & Shoemaker will sell the Ross Sewing Machine for $38, or you can rent a machine of them. 7-11-1f.

TUSCARORA.—Parties coming in from Tuscarora report times as very dull out that way, but predict a brilliant future. The Grand Prize company is making preparations to thoroughly prospect the mine and resume the taking out of ore on a much larger scale than ever before. We believe this to be one of the best mines in Eastern Nevada, and that only a little push on the part of the company is necessary to prove it.

THE NEW MOWN.—There is nothing pleasanter in the wide, wide world than to sally forth with pitch fork in hand, when the thermometer is about 107 degrees in the shade, and watch the brawny harvest hand gather their new mown. It is a grand sight surely and can be observed best from the shade of a willow, care being taken lest sleep overtake you in the middle of your labors. A jug of buttermilk will also help you.

FELLOWS' Compound Syrup!
—OF—
HYPOPHOSPHITES.

THIS DISCOVERY
Is the result of a series of Scientific Experiments based upon the theory that "for the successful cure of Wasting Diseases, Hyeterrhythm, Nervous Debility, or any other system must be made vigorous and healthy."

One of the first symptoms of disease affecting either the Liver, Lungs, Heart, Stomach, or Genital Organs, is a loss of nervous power. This is followed by muscular relaxation, weakness, and emaciation of all the organs which depend upon them for health or involuntary muscular action, the weaker suffering first.

The inventor, acting upon this idea, that the muscles and nerves depend upon each other for efficient strength and action, and that they must be treated directly in order to speedily and permanently cure diseases of the organs which they control, became convinced, after months of experiment, that no other preparation produced such potent and direct effects upon the nervous system as his

and except in cases of actual organic loss, that it would restore patients suffering from those maladies.

Amongst the diseases overcome by the use of this remedy are the following:—
Chronic Constipation,
Chronic Dyspepsia,
Asthma,
Chronic Bronchitis,
Consumption,
Chronic Diarrhea,
Chronic Laryngitis,
Melancholy,
Nervous Debility.

Debility, resulting from Typhoid and other fevers, Diphtheritic Prostration, Rheumatism, Hypochondria, Nervous Excitability, Marasmus or Wasting of the Muscles, Aphonia or Loss of Voice, Stiffness of the Liver, Intermittent and Febrile Action of the Heart, Suffocating Feelings caused by mucous obstruction of the Lungs and Air Passages leading thereto, and Debility from various causes.

Indigestion and habitual Constipation almost always arise from weakness of the muscles and nerves of the stomach and bowels. In such cases, Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites has proved itself of the greatest service by inducing healthy peristaltic action of the intestines. The evacuations become copious and healthy, without producing the effect of purgative medicine.

Weakness of the JOINTS and MUSCLES. IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD, and INWARD WASTING may be cured by attention to the regular described doses, and by due regard to the habits of life.

FELLOWS' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites
The power of arresting diseases displayed by this preparation is honorably acknowledged by the medical faculty in every section where it has been introduced, and the large sale is the best guarantee of the estimation in which it is held by the public.

This syrup will cure PULMONARY CONSUMPTION in the first and second stages, will give relief and prolong life in the third. It will cure ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, LARYNGITIS and COUGHS. It will cure all diseases originating from want of MUSCULAR ACTION and NERVOUS FORCE.

Sold by all Druggists.
Price $1.50 per bottle or six bottles for $7.50.
